

LOLER & PUWER SEMINAR

Course Objective:

- At the end of this course, candidates should be able to
- Demonstrate knowledge of LOLER & PUWER 1998 requirement and major differences from previous legislation.
 - Understand the responsibilities they must meet under the regulations both as employee and employer.
 - Understand implications of the regulations in conjunction with the Approved Code of Practice.

Course Description:

This course is appropriate for those responsible for the management of lifting equipment, work equipment and lifting operations in general so as to update them on the new regulations.

It also outlines the major differences from the regulations it has replaced, and underlining employer and employee responsibilities.

Course Duration: 1 Day

Certification:

At the end of the course participants will receive a LEEA Certificate of training

Course Content:

- The general requirements of PUWER as applied to Lifting Equipment.
- Lifting Equipment and the way it is used as covered specifically by LOLER.
- The previous “sector based” legislation replaced by LOLER.
- LOLER – Where it applies and who it affects.
- The “new approach” legislation – What this means, how is it meant to be applied, and risk assessment as demanded by the ‘Management of Health & Safety at Work Regulations.
- Approved Codes of Practice (ACOP) and advice on how to apply the law.
- Lifting equipment examination periods as applied by LOLER.
- EC Declaration of Conformity (DOC) and CE marked equipment
- Testing as part of the thorough examination as applied by LOLER.
- The discretion of the competent person.
- Rules regarding lifting equipment where the safety of which depends on it’s installation.
- Assessments.